Southampton (London), England

Pay homage to one of the most famous ships to sail these shores at the Mayflower Memorial. Visit the stoic walls of Bargate and the Tudor House Museum.

Guernsey, Channel Islands, UK

The island's capital St. Peters Port, along with area cliffs and grasslands, is considered one of Europe's most scenic port cities. Think cobblestone streets, gardens, museums and boutiques. Tour 800-year-old Castle Cornet, hike along cliffs or visit the museum at Hauteville House – home of famed French writer Victor Hugo.

Portland, England

Located along the English Channel, Portland is divided into two areas: north and south. The south end is where extensive stone quarries lie, a resource important to the region. Unique to the city is the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy, which hosts world sailing championships.

Cork (Cobh), Ireland

Ireland's third largest city is a wonderful walking city built on the River Lee. Visit St. Finn Barre's Cathedral, a wonderful, triple-spired example of French-gothic architecture, and spend some time in The Old Gaol, where original 19th century cells tell some fascinating tales.

Dublin, Ireland

Ireland's thriving yet elegant capital sits at the mouth of the River Liffey. Visit a castle. Take a walking tour. Shop O'Connell Street. Have a pint at the Guinness Brewery.

Belfast, Northern Ireland

Exploring Belfast is a treat for urban fans. The city is rife with trendy cafés, restaurants, and nightlife yet it also boasts a lovely historical district. While the city is packed with things to do, rural landscapes are within a short reach.

Kirkwall, Orkney Isles

This starkly beautiful island holds many ancient treasures like the mysterious Standing Stones of Stenness and the 5,000-year-old village of Skara Brae, which was discovered with the furniture and indoor drains preserved. Visit the nearby ruins of the Earl's Palace and Bishop's Palace. Stop in a pub for salmon and lamb dishes with the locals – then shop cashmere, whiskey and crafts.

Inverness (Invergordon), Scotland

Inverness is a city in the glorious Scottish Highlands. Teeming with bagpipe players and enthusiasts thanks to the city's annual Northern Meeting in September, Inverness also boasts a diverse music scene.

Edinburgh (Newhaven), Scotland

Stroll along the medieval Royal Mile to the Palace of Holyrood house to see the abbey and Queen Mary's chambers. Marvel at the impressive Edinburgh Castle, high on its volcanic crag. Visit St. Giles' Cathedral and leave enough time to rest at one of Edinburgh's seaside restaurants to enjoy fresh seafood, lamb and prime Angus beef.

Newcastle (Tyne), England

Enjoy a walking tour of this Victorian city and trace the city's history back to the Celtic Age. Venture below ground into the historic Victoria Tunnel that was built for coal wagons between 1839 and 1842 and then used as an air raid shelter during World War II. Note: Your inner child may love the hands-on museum called Seven Stories.
