Venice (Trieste) Embark

The scenic port city of Trieste is steeped in history and natural beauty. Cultural fluidity is reflected in the awe-inspiring architecture and delicious cuisine. Touring museums and historic sites, strolling along its waterfront, this region of Italy boasts a wide range of attractions and activities.

Venice (Ravenna), Italy

Along the northeast coast of Italy is the historic town of Ravenna, the western most pillar of the Byzantine Empire. The exquisite Byzantine mosaics, the old streets, peaceful squares and the fine shops resemble any Italian city, but the Byzantine domes of its churches evoke its Eastern heritage.

Dubrovnik, Croatia

The magnificent 13th century walls surround the city. Dubbed "the Pearl of the Adriatic" by the poet, Lord Byron, this Croatian city exudes romantic charm and beautiful scenery with its shimmering marble streets, centuries-old buildings bright orange roofs, and lovely beaches ensconced between awesome rocky ledges.

Kotor, Montenegro

Tucked away between the mountains and the Bay of Kotor, is the picturesque town of Kotor. As you arrive, you'll notice the dramatic 65-foot-high protective walls, which date back to the Venetian period during the 9th century. Stroll the labyrinth of cobbled streets with cozy cafes and craft shops as you marvel at the graceful old buildings. Kotor is world-famous as a premier yachting and sailing destination.

Corfu, Greece

One of the lushest of the Greek Isles, Corfu is rimmed in dramatic blue waters and topped with tranquil hillside villages. A collection of quaint cafes in the town of Corfu feels very continental, but the coves and sandy beaches could only be found in the Greek Isles.

Santorini, Greece

Whitewashed villages clinging to the sides of the sea cliffs have made the volcanic island of Santorini one of the most widely photographed places in the world. The island's charm and subtle mystery have made it a target of speculation as the location of the lost city of Atlantis.

Athens, Greece

Athens the oldest city in Europe, not only is this city home to the Acropolis and some of the most important architectural structures and archaeological finds in the Western world. Athens is a modern city, an amalgam of extraordinary art, culture, cuisine and shopping.

Mykonos, Greece

Mykonos is a classic Greek Island with whitewashed houses, blue-domed churches, windmills and beautiful beaches. Explore in a 4 x 4 or take a ferry to the tiny island of Delos.

Zakynthos, Greece

The island's nickname is "the Flower of the East". The ancient Greek poet Homer, mentioned Zakynthos in the Iliad and the Odyssey. The most famous sight in Zakynthos is Navagio beach, meaning shipwreck in Greek. The island is also a breeding place of the endangered caretta caretta sea turtles.

Catania, (Sicily) Italy

Catania is situated in the shadow of the famous active volcano, Mount Etna. Catania's squares, cathedrals and other historic sites are a must-visit. Journey outside Catania to explore the lava fields and rock formations.

Naples, Italy

Naples, located on Italy's stunning Amalfi coast, a city rich in history. A tour around Naples' grand piazzas, cathedrals and castles in the old center will take you back centuries. Pompeii is a short distance away.

Florence/Pisa. Italy

This visit to the Tuscan region, Florence & Pisa, resplendent in art and history. All the main attractions in Florence are centrally located for the perfect walking tour. See Santa Croce, Piazza del Duomo and Michelangelo's David.

Rome, Italy (Civitavecchia) Disembark

Adventures await in Rome, with two and a half thousand years of history, art and culture. Gaze at the masterpieces of the Vatican or walk into the past with visits to ancient relics, historic monuments and legendary museums.
